

The month of March has seen a couple of significant markers in the life of Riverside, as far as our preaching and messaging: we wrapped up an impacting, diverse, 12 week series entitled “A Verse that Changed my Life”, followed by the traditionally powerful Easter season.

Which leads us to the season that loosely follows Easter and then precedes summer; it’s a special time to pay close attention to what the Spirit is saying to the Church, especially in light of the busyness and sometimes interrupted patterns of consistent church attendance as summer vacation time looms. A time to really steady our resolve and to lean into hearing clearly from God, both personally and corporately. A time to be built up in our faith and to deepen our commitment to walking closely with Jesus; a time to establish devotional regularity that will sustain us in times when church attendance is not as accessible as other times of the year.

With that in mind, we will be embarking on a chapter by chapter exploration of the books of 1 & 2 Thessalonians. This eight week study will lead us to a book rich in wise instruction and biblical worldviews, coupled with timely reminders about the return of Jesus and intense practicality involving relationships within the church.

As we prepared for this series we had a distinct sense from the Lord as to the heightened urgency of its message: it’s both TIMELY and TIMELESS!

So, let’s really buckle down and engage with a listening ear to the voice of the Spirit, in order to strengthen ourselves, our families, and our church community in the things that really matter, all delivered through the practical lessons of the Word delivered to a church in the ancient Greek city of Thessaloniki - teaching that is as relevant today as it’s ever been!
