

OCTOBER

Riverside Community Church

We have just spent the last month talking about the vision of God for the Church, and what that looks like at Riverside Community Church. Now, we have the opportunity to answer some significant questions for those within the Church and those outside the Church as well: What is the Church? What is the point of the Church? What does it look like to be the Church together? In the New Testament the word church is often a translation of the word Ekklesia, a word used in reference to the gathering of Christians together and to the larger community of Christians.

Participating as a part of the Ekklesia is a core part of the practice of Christians, and a beautiful opportunity to come together to achieve something much greater than we could ever achieve on our own. It may not always look the way that Jesus intended, but we are going to be committing ourselves to pursuing His best so that we might be able to achieve His purposes for our lives and do the best we can to reflect who He really is to the world around us. So, please join us as we answer these questions together in our next series we are calling Ekklesia.
